Sunday, October 5th

ID is required.

The word "catechesis" means "to echo." Literally, we are to echo the good news of Jesus Christ to the world. This is not a suggestion; it is a command of our Lord. Some people are called and set apart in our communities as catechists, those formally trained and charged with passing on the Gospel to children and adults, inside and outside of our communities.

On Catechetical Sunday, we acknowledge them and remind ourselves of the need for formation and growth in all of us. To be a catechist is a privileged calling, and today be sure to say "thank you" to those in our parish community listed below.

SFDS Catholic Academy Catechists:

Christopher Scharbach - Maureen Hayes
Danielle Farragher - Margaret Buckley
Joanna Bodnar - Marianne Caruso
Danielle Gannon - Rosanna Connors

Nancy Re - Laura Sullivan - Richard Diffendale
Ann McMahan - Frank Tullo - Suellen Foti
Marybeth McManus - Patricia Powers
Randy Neiswenter - Lauren Nishi
Carolina Moya - Carmella Nocco

SFDS Religious Education Catechists:

Heavenly Father, we ask Your blessing upon all the catechists of St. Francis de Sales Parish as they begin this new academic year. May You grant them wisdom, patience, and joy as they share the faith and guide their students closer to You. Strengthen them in their mission and reward their dedication with grace and peace.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES CATHOLIC ACADEMY UPDATE

Dear St. Francis de Sales Parishioners,

This Sunday's Gospel presents us with the Parable of the Shrewd Manager, a story that at first seems puzzling. Jesus tells of a manager who, though dishonest, was praised for his cleverness in preparing for the future. The lesson is not that dishonesty is to be admired, but that we are called to act with the same foresight, urgency, and creativity when it comes to living as disciples of Christ.

This message resonates deeply on Catechetical Sunday, when we celebrate those who hand on the gift of faith. Catechists, whether teachers in our academy, parents at home, or volunteers in our parish religious education program, are stewards of God's Word. They use their talents and dedication to form young hearts and minds, guiding our children to know, love, and serve the Lord. Like the shrewd manager, catechists recognize the urgency of their mission: to prepare souls not only for life here on earth but for eternal life with God. We give thanks today for all who embrace this holy calling and invite everyone to see themselves as catechists in daily life, teaching by word and example.

As a parish and school community, we too are called to act with wisdom and foresight in building up the Body of Christ. One of the ways we do this is by strengthening the bonds of friendship and faith among our alumni, families, and supporters. With that in mind, we are excited to share that tickets are selling quickly for our first-ever Alumni & Friends Dinner Dance on November 6th. Over 325 tickets have already been sold, and we anticipate a full sellout. These next few weeks are your last chance to purchase tickets, available at the school's main office and through our website. Don't miss this historic evening of celebration and community.

Have a great week!

St. Francis de Sales- Pray for Us!

To Parents of Young Children

Relax! God put the wiggle in children; don't feel you have to suppress those wiggles in God's house.

Consider sitting toward the front where it is easier for your little ones to see and hear what's going on.

Quietly explain the parts of the service and actions of the pastor, musicians, and other leaders.

Sing the hymns, pray, and voice the responses. Children learn by mimicking your participation.

Make use of the Sermon Notes handout to keep your kids engaged in the worship service.

If you have to leave the service with your child, feel free to do so, but please come back. As Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me."

To All Members and Visitors

Children are God's gift to our church. They remind us that He is growing His body while raising up the next generation of His people.

Remember, the way we welcome children here directly affects the way they respond to the Church, to God, and to one another. Let them know they are valued members of our church family.

Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.

Wedding Anniversary Mass

The Sacrament of Marriage should be celebrated. All couples regardless of the anniversary year are invited to renew their vows. Bring your family to witness your exchange and the continued commitment to one another.
